

Developing a Bullying-Focused Therapy for LGBTQ

Do you identify as LGBTQ and have a history of being bullied as a child/adolescent? Would you like to participate in a study to develop a therapy to target the long-term effects of bullying in individuals who identify as LGBTQ?
Participation involves a one-time interview

You may be eligible if you:

- Identify as LGBTQ
- Have a history of being bullied as a child/adolescent
- Participated in therapy/counseling for anxiety or depression
- Are 18 years of age or older

For more information, please call Karen:
416-535-8501, ext. 37627

COMPENSATION IS PROVIDED
All information will remain confidential

Developing a Bullying-Focused Therapy for LGBTQ

Do you provide counseling services to individuals who identify as LGBTQ? Would you like to participate in a study to develop a therapy to target the long-term effects of bullying in individuals who identify as LGBTQ?
Participation involves a one-time interview

You may be eligible if you:

- Are a mental health service provider
- Currently provide counseling services to individuals who identify as LGBTQ
- Have at least 3 years of counseling experience

For more information, please call Karen:
416-535-8501, ext. 37627

COMPENSATION MAY BE PROVIDED
All information will remain confidential